Community Policing in Lisbon – a participatory planning approach for building safer neighbourhoods

A preventive, proactive and participative policing model that is oriented towards the resolution of community security problems.

It differs from traditional models of policing in Lisbon in that it is jointly planned and operated by a partnership established between the Lisbon Municipal Police, local partners and residents.

All members of this partnership recognise the importance of cooperation between the Police and the community in improving both actual security and citizens' feelings of security.

CCI – Research findings from a human-centred design approach

<https://www.cuttingcrimeimpact.eu>

CCI

▶ CCI - Cutting Crime Project (H2020)

Objective: to enable police and relevant local and national authorities to reduce the impact of crime and, where possible, prevent crime from occurring in the first place.

The project has been developing bespoke support tools, resources and guidance materials (toolkits), to enable police forces and policymakers to implement effective practice in four areas: Predictive Policing, Community Policing, Crime Prevention through Urban Design and Planning and, Measuring and Mitigating Citizens' Feelings of Insecurity.

▶ Oct. 2018 – Dec. 2021

▶ 12 partners from 7 European Countries

CCI Research methodology

A bottom-up human-centred design approach, focusing on understanding end-users constraints and requirements to find solutions tailored to the needs of users and key stakeholders.

Observation

Focus Group

Observation / Interviews

Foot patrolling by the Community Policing Team

- Listening to the needs communicated by the population

Monthly meetings with the partners of the security group

Identification of public space problems

- Sidewalks maintenance
- Litter in the street
- Lack of street lightning
- Vegetation hiding road signs
- Abandoned vehicles
- Nuisance

Awareness activities planned with local partners on crime prevention and safety recommendations

Problem Area

- ▶ The frequent diversion of community policing officers to other police tasks outside the areas assigned for community policing
- ▶ Community policing officers are frequently allocated to other police activities, as community policing is perceived by some senior officers and by their peers as not being 'real' police work
 - Importance of community policing officers' role in community security is not recognised
- ▶ Need to change the mindset of senior police officers (decision makers) to one that values and supports the community policing model in Lisbon
 - Thereby reducing / preventing community policing officers being diverted to other territories

O Policiamento Comunitário na construção de Comunidades mais Seguras

A Polícia Municipal de Lisboa tem vindo a desenvolver na última década uma estratégia de Policiamento Comunitário assente no estabelecimento de parcerias locais para a melhoria da segurança na comunidade – os grupos de segurança. Através de um patrulhamento apoiado por equipas policiais fidelizadas a territórios específicos, os agentes articulam diariamente com os moradores e parceiros locais para a identificação e resolução conjunta de problemas de segurança nesses territórios.

Objetivos do Policiamento Comunitário

Capacitar a comunidade para uma cidadania participativa na segurança a nível local

Melhorar o conhecimento sobre os problemas de segurança na comunidade

Objetivos

Reduzir e prevenir incividades

Sensibilizar a população para a adoção de comportamentos de segurança

Melhorar a relação de confiança entre a polícia e a população

Respostas + eficazes e sustentáveis

Transferir boas práticas para outros territórios da cidade

Aumentar o sentimento de segurança da população

Como é operacionalizado?

Patrulhamento apoiado pela equipa de Policiamento Comunitário da Polícia Municipal de Lisboa

Reuniões mensais dos parceiros dos Grupos de Segurança

Identificação e resolução conjunta de problemas no espaço público

Dinamização de ações de sensibilização sobre segurança na comunidade

Etapas do planeamento do Policiamento Comunitário

A ida dos agentes para cada novo território é planeada com os parceiros dos grupos de segurança. Esta fase de planeamento tem uma duração média de 1 ano e é composta pelas seguintes etapas:

Um modelo de policiamento inovador e eficaz

As equipas de Policiamento Comunitário atuam de forma rápida e eficaz na resolução de problemas, uma vez que articulam em rede e de forma contínua com os parceiros locais, tendo igualmente a facilidade de poderem articular diretamente com os outros serviços municipais para a rápida resolução dos problemas na comunidade.

Os polícias comunitários possuem um conjunto único, em termos policiais, de competências pessoais, técnicas e relacionais que lhes permitem lidar com situações de maior complexidade, fruto da sua formação especializada e know how desenvolvido através da estreita articulação com parceiros da área social.

As equipas de Policiamento Comunitário ao serem fidelizadas a territórios específicos, os agentes são reconhecidos pela população, o que facilita a relação de confiança entre a Polícia e os Cidadãos e a comunicação de problemas e de preocupações de segurança por parte da comunidade.

As equipas de Policiamento Comunitário têm um conhecimento aprofundado dos territórios, tanto dos seus problemas como dos seus recursos, o que contribui para um melhor planeamento do policiamento diário na cidade.

Toolkit strategic planning sessions:

► Toolkit components

- Brochure
- Pen drive
- Video
- Digital brochure
- Strategic Planning Sessions
- PowerPoint presentation template
- Assortment of CCI information & crime prevention materials

Potential for Tool to create changes in practices

- ▶ Senior officers/decision-makers active participation in the planning and strategic delivery of community policing will result in increased sense of 'ownership' and so longer-term engagement and support.
- ▶ The Planning Sessions facilitate discussion about the strategy for community policing in Lisbon through a participative and interactive methodology involving senior police officers and other stakeholders.
- ▶ Planning Sessions to discuss the delivery of community policing and advance priorities and proposals for its innovation and improvement:
 - Training strategies
 - Teams selection process
 - Expansion of the CP to other Lisbon territories
 - Criteria to select new neighbourhoods for CP

Potential for Tool to create changes in practices

- ▶ Inclusion of senior police officers as trainers
 - New contributes to CP training contents.
 - The participation of senior police officers increased their involvement in community policing.

Potential for Tool to create changes in perceptions

- ▶ Senior officers/decision-makers improved understanding and engagement in community policing, will reduce negative interference and re-assigning of community policing officers onto different policing tasks.
- ▶ Senior police officers by participating in community policing planning, will contribute to value it and to diminish the conflicting roles between police officers (the ‘real’ police – a ‘hard’ approach) and community policing officers (a ‘soft’ approach):
 - Community policing teams can act quickly and effectively to solve community problems, as they maintain a constant, close connection with partners and residents.
 - Community police officers bring to policing a unique set of interpersonal, communication and technical skills that allow them to deal with complex community situations.
 - Being designated to specific territories over a long period of time enables Community Policing Teams to gain recognition and acceptance by the population, facilitating a trusting relationship between police and citizens.
- ▶ A greater number of police and non-police elements from the Lisbon Community Policing have now a better knowledge about the community policing model.
- ▶ The quality of the design and of the communication tool was highlighted as very positive for the police image.

Potential for Tool to create changes in policies

- ▶ The Tool is recognised by Command, as an important communication tool to present the community policing model to strategic decision makers with direct influence on the policies that impact CP delivery.
- ▶ Decision makers have now a Tool that facilitates the communication of the Lisbon Community Policing model.
