Congress attendance	As the panel's moderator you will receive a free congress ticket. No separate registration is necessary. May we draw your attention to the fact that no fees or travel expenses can be paid.
Further Participants	All participants in the panel will receive an admission ticket at the contributor rate (205 euros). Please pass on this information accordingly. Registration will be processed automatically by the DPT once the data has been entered.
Panel details	A total of 60 minutes is allowed for panels. You are responsible for organising the content yourself.
Technical equipment	All lecture rooms are equipped with a PC, projector and projection screen as standard. You will receive information on how to submit your presentation in advance (technical check) later.
Programme-Flyer	The congress programme of the 30th German Prevention Congress will be available on our website www.praeventionstag.de/go/en at the end of March 2025. The printed, updated version will be made available to you on site when you check in at the congress. For reasons of sustainability, we will not be sending it out in advance.
Online-Programme	Detailed descriptions of all contributions will appear on the DPT website: www.praeventionstag.de/go/en. For this purpose, we require a short description/abstract of your contribution and a short vita (max. 1,400 characters each) as well as (optionally) a photo via the online access provided. The deadline for approval is 15 February 2025.
Documentation	We will publish your lecture-presentations or the written versions of the lectures in citable form in our internet documentation. We would be very glad if you are interested in the publication of your written version. Please provide us with your article in digitalised form – as soon as possible after the Congress finishes.
